

HORATIO CONGRESS BERLIN

„Complex Interventions in Mental Health“ DEVELOPING, IMPLEMENTING AND EVALUATING COMPLEX INTERVENTIONS

Keynotes

PROF. DAVID RICHARDS, UK

„Complex Interventions: How to build 'implementability' into intervention development, testing and evaluation“

PROF. STEVEN PRYJMACHUK, UK

„Mental Health Services as Complex Interventions“

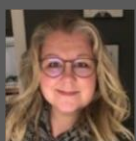

MICHAEL MAYER M.A., GERMANY

„Peer Support Worker in southern Germany: Training and self-concept of their work in mental health services“

PROF. GABRIELE MEYER, GERMANY

„Studying the implementation of complex interventions in nursing settings“

DR. RIKKE JØRGENSEN, DENMARK

„Willingness to change? Mental health nurses' reactions to implementation of a complex intervention“

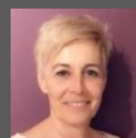

DR. DANIEL CHISHOLM, UK

„Mental health promotion, protection and care in Europe: a person-centred, rights-based and multi-disciplinary endeavour over the entire life-course“

PROF. STEFAN BRUNNHUBER, Germany

„Psychiatry of tomorrow“

HELEN SCHNEIDER & DR. GIANFRANCO ZUABONI, SWITZERLAND

„Co-production in Practice: Experiences in the development and delivery of a recovery-oriented group programme on a psychiatric acute ward“

14 – 16 MAY 2020

HOTEL AQUINO

Tagungszentrum Katholische Akademie
Hannoversche Straße 5b
10115 Berlin

CONGRESS FEES

Early Bird 430 € (till 31.01.2020)
Regular 480 € (after 01.02.2020)

Conference language is english

Accreditation points by RCSI - Faculty of Nursing and Midwifery

